

ETHIOPIA CAPITAL FACES AIR RAID

Monday, October the 14th!

An Editorial

THIS is an editorial for the man or woman who is not tied to any party, who may be casting his or her first vote and who, amid the welter of appeals by vehement partisans, wants to know how to best vote to help a return to prosperity.

We will have to assume that you're tired of Mr. Bennett and the things he stands for—"SOUND MONEY," that makes money and credit scarce and dear and profits only the money-lending class; HIGH TARIFFS, that benefit only a few favored monopolists, making these rich at the expense of the great body of consumers; one-way trade, that benefits a few monopolists at the expense of the basic producer and the great body of the working class.

If you're a beneficiary of the Bennett policies, if you're a money-lender, a highly protected manufacturer, a contractor for relief camp supplies, or even a poor chap who prefers assured support in a relief camp at 20 cents a day to the toil of maintaining a wife and family by work at standard wages, then your course is clear. You need no further. Your best policy is to vote for the Bennett candidates.

But, suppose you want to lead a normal life of free opportunity, making a living for yourself and family by your efforts, producing wheat or coal, lumber or manufactured goods for sale or exchange, how shall you vote to achieve your desires? That's the question!

You have a choice of voting for half-a-dozen other parties or groups—Liberal, C.C.F., Communist, Reconstruction, Social Credit, etc., and, in Athabasca, for a lone Technocrat. How shall you decide between them?

The RECONSTRUCTION PARTY can be ruled out. It is only another Conservative Party in disguise. Its leader, Mr. Stevens, has been an ardent high-tariff Conservative ever since he came on the scene in 1911 to defeat reciprocity with United States by the cry "No truck nor trade with the Yankee" until Mr. Bennett's decision to retain the Conservative leadership.

The COMMUNIST and C.C.F. PARTIES can be ruled out because Canada is not yet ripe for either Communism or Socialism. Neither of these groups could form a government if every one of its candidates were elected. All they can do is to divert Liberal votes, weaken opposition to the Bennett regime and help keep Canada under bondage to the St. James Street crowd.

The same reasoning applies to the handful of SOCIAL CREDIT CANDIDATES. There is no need for Social Credit candidates to ensure Social Credit a fair opportunity in Alberta under federal Liberal rule. Support of Social Credit candidates in the federal field will weaken instead of strengthen the Social Credit possibility of success in Alberta.

It all narrows down to this: The only party with a sufficient body of candidates in the field to beat the Toryism, high-tariff and money rule of Mr. Bennett is the Liberal party. Any vote diverted from it weakens the opposition to Bennett.

Now is the time for all good men (and women) to come to the aid of the party that has the men, the measures and the will to defeat Toryism in Canada and restore peace and prosperity to our people.

The LIBERAL PARTY is the only party that has ever brought prosperity to Canada. It did so under Sir Wilfrid Laurier and, later, under Right Honourable W. L. Mackenzie King. It can do it again by putting into effect the same principles and policies that brought prosperity after the Liberal victories of 1896 and 1921.

It is pledged to restore trade treaties, to increase the British preference, to re-open negotiations for reciprocity with United States, to lower tariffs on the implements of production and the necessities of the home, to abolish exchange and dumping penalties, to further the development of agriculture, mining, lumbering and fisheries, create traffic for our railroads, to repeal Section 98 and restore free speech to the people of Canada.

It is further pledged to take away some power over money and credit from the group of private profiteers to whom Mr. Bennett granted it by statute and vest these in the government as trustees for the people to be used "IN TERMS OF PUBLIC NEED" through a PUBLICLY OWNED AND CONTROLLED BANK OF CANADA.

That means the end of the slave-camp system in Canada and the dawn of a greater period of freedom and prosperity than previously enjoyed under Liberal rule.

Efforts are being made by the beneficiaries of the monopolist system to encourage a multiplicity of radical groups in order to divide the opposition to Bennettism and keep the people of Canada in thrall to the money and tariff power.

Do not be deceived. Any vote—however well meant—given to any candidate other than a Liberal candidate, is a vote that will aid Bennett and his backers and block reform.

Under these circumstances, the wise course is to support your Liberal candidate. By failing to do so you would play into the hands of those who have enslaved Canadians to SPECIAL PRIVILEGE and ORGANIZED GREED. Think it over!

GENEVA, Oct. 5.—It was officially announced today that Edouard Benes, President of the League of Nations Assembly, had decided to convoke the Assembly in urgent session at 4 p.m. next Wednesday to consider the Italo-Ethiopian dispute.

In the meantime the Council of the League in a secret session not attended by the Italian representative, decided in principle on the appointment of a committee of six to examine the dispute in the light of the "new situation" and to recommend what step the Council should take next to avert further bloodshed.

ALBERTA'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER EDMONTON BULLETIN—SATURDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1935

GAS COMPANY MODEL HOME OPENED SOON

Will Give Home-Owners
Chance to See Modern
Gas Appliances

With executives of the Northern Western Utilities Ltd. convinced that by next year there is a demand for a model home back at their normal level, with many houses being erected in Edmonton, the gas company has taken a hand in the project, and have asked the gas company to provide a prospective home building a model bungalow at 13224 102nd avenue.

The model bungalow is for the purpose of giving home-owners a chance to see what can be done to make efficient gas appliances. The bungalow opened for inspection during certain days each business day for a period of about two weeks. "While we have not yet been able to determine the date for its opening we expect it to be about October 10," stated Julian Garrett, manager of the gas company, in announcing the action taken by the company.

SURPLUS SPACE UTILIZED

Mr. Garrett explained that built by J. H. Buchanan, Laramie, under the supervision of W. G. Blakey, architect, the bungalow will be a five-room bungalow. It is not for the fact that a large portion of the basement of the home heated by gas has been utilized to advantage, but the fact that the basement two extra rooms have been provided. One is a bathroom and the other is a laundry room. The other may be used for a variety of purposes. For instance, it may be used as a sitting room, a boy's room, or as a play room. Otherwise it may be used to comprise a modern laundry, lavatory, cedar lined wardrobe for cutlery, cedar lined storage room, and cold closet.

"Conveniently located at the foot of the hill, the house is a gas incinerator for the burning of rubish, refuse and garbage. Not only is it a gas incinerator but it is also a heater. Just beyond these two appliances is a straight gas demand heater which is connected with the condensing unit attached. The furnace will be equipped with a gas valve, having a thermostat to regulate the heat to the temperature desired. The unit will be automatically cleaned and supplied with just the right degree of heat.

WELL EQUIPPED LAUNDRY

"In the laundry at the foot of the clothes chute is a sorting table. There is a gas ironer. The lounge has a gas fire with imitation coal blocks. The lounge is heated by the gas in the other basement room. It is heated by a steam steam radiator. This is a part of the appliance.

"The kitchen is a large room, heated by a winding cement block wall, terminating in a large fireplace. The floor of which is of Mexican mosaic tile. The fireplace is a built-in unit.

"The dining room is a large room, with a built-in unit.

DISMISSAL IS INSULT AVERS W. R. HOWSON

Worthy War Veteran Deputy Minister Fired to Make Room

Charging that the summary dismissal of a trade and industry was an "insult to not only the returned soldiers" but to the citizens of Alberta, W. R. Howson, Alberta Liberal leader on Saturday declared that the Minister of Trade and Mr. Anderson in one, had ample cause for protesting the action of Hon. W. N. Coates, Minister of Trade, in asking for the resignation on the ground that Mr. Anderson could not fully explain the science of a "just price."

Mr. Howson, when the news of Mr. Anderson's dismissal became known, charged that the Minister himself could not explain the reason for which he had asked the returned soldiers to protest the action.

Premier William Aberhart then received a defense of the minister's action.

CAPABLE MAN

Commenting on the Premier's action, Mr. Howson on Saturday declared that the premier's attitude toward returned men in Alberta is "a foreboding of what may be one of the first acts." He says that the minister of trade and industry is not justified in asking for the resignation of Mr. Anderson, Deputy of that department.

Mr. Howson has proved himself not only a capable man, but he is a returned soldier who served overseas and was left with a maimed, wounded-wounds from which he will never recover.

Mr. Howson, who received his service to his country, was taken care of by the government. Alberta has been of great service to the nation one year ago and made deputy minister of trade and industry.

CANADA'S LOSS

Then Mr. Aberhart is elected and the credit for his service is to be summarily cast out of the public records. This is a remarkable act, because he cannot explain the practice of sending returned men to protest the action of the trade minister.

What can Mr. Aberhart have not been able to do?

He admits that he was asked to find a man of good character, minded people to stay by pretending to be a good cause. People are rapidly coming to realize the fakir-methods that were practised by Mr. Aberhart.

ACTION REQUESTED

"Mr. Aberhart says that I am employing obstructionist propaganda to do object to Mr. Aberhart who is staying in the country. He returned soldiers upon the mercy of a cold winter to the United States where he can be obtained and when it is done simply to put one of Mr. Aberhart's own men in Mr. Anderson's place. The fact is that that Canada's wheat carry-

With a world shortage of wheat, the only problem of the wheat industry is that of the carry-over of wheat from the previous year.

As a result of the establishment of the new Board of Canada's exports for the month of August alone this year have been $10,000,000 bushels of wheat, and $1,000,000 worth of other products.

getting a fair price for grain and there was no reason why the people who would be cheering for
Mr. Bennett should be contented.

Mr. Bennett says the "left wing" of the Liberal party is in control and that Mr. King's monetary reform proposals are in keeping with the demands from this more progressive section of his party associates. He is quite right. There are reactionaries in the Liberal camp, just as there are some very Liberal-minded people in the Conservative camp.

The difference is that while the "left wing" Liberals are succeeded in making their views prevail in the party councils and are shaping the party's course on monetary reform, the "left wing" Conservatives, despairing of Mr. Bennett, are marching over to Mr. Stevens and leaving the "dissident" leader to his own cut-throat and unkept promises.

ADDING ABUSE TO INJURY

"And that is more than most of them are entitled to."

The thousands of single men who have been driven to take refuge in the relief camps now know what Mr. Bennett thinks of them. He told them in the course of a speech delivered at St. John's, N.B. After describing in eulogistic terms the provision that has been made for the men in the camps, with food, shelter, and twenty cents a day, he said, "In return for 'left wing' work, the Province added insult that is more than most of them are entitled to."

This is the most cruel of all the reproaches Mr. Bennett has flung at the victims of misfortune. He has referred to unemployed men as "mentally deficient individuals" and to those who are "shoddy" as having "no record of newspaper 'working for a few dollars per week'; but none of these insults was quite so brutally direct as the one he now hurl's at men whose presence in the camps is the consequence and the proof of his own shortsightedness. He has mismanaged the affairs of Canada.

It will be resented by everyone who knows the facts, by none more keenly than by Conservative and Liberal members who, until now, seem to have empathized with the others obliged to accept subsistence in the camps. It was bad enough that youth should be cheated of its opportunity for years, but to abuse the campers because they have been cheated is something worse, in my judgment, of the Montreal Sun.

THE "LEFT WINGS" does not make sense.

WHY MONEY ONLY?

Mr. Bennett was of course only spoofing when he said he would recruit and advocate a public-owned Central Bank if he were shown that such a bank would be in the interests of the public; the idea that anyone could "show" Mr. Bennett anything being the point of the joke.

But the sober-minded gentlemen who can't see the joke's money and credit have a full sense of humor and a sharp sense of suspicion. Apparently the thought the Premier was serious, or might be. Hence the strategy committee is now running advertisements in the newspapers that all concerned them, whatever of the Central Bank going back on St. James Street, while Hon. Mr. Martin rises from platform to platform to denounce public-ownership of the Central Bank; at the same time certain men ruin the nation.

The "left wing" is that behind all "further" doubt is a quibble. There will be something as a public-owned Central Bank if Mr. Bennett and the gentlemen with whom he is allied can prevent it. The present status, of that institution represents the "left wing" to be the ideal system of money control. The powers which heretofore the Government has held, and exercised on occasion, to enlarge the currency and to regulate the direction of the institution and are now concentrated in the direction with an eye to their own advantages direct and indirect. This is as it should be, according to Mr. Bennett, Dr. Marion, and the official declarations of the Bank represented by the people of Canada, or who even thinks parliament should have some measure of control over its operations, need entertain any hope in that quarter.

But at that the sponsors of the private Central Bank are "pikers." Why do they not carry their argument to its logical conclusion and propose to turn over the postal service to a syndicate; give a complete monopoly of the administration of the Bank to those who represent the best business direction of national trade policy upon an association of dividend-hunters; and organize a trust to handle contracts for public works?

Why not farm out every branch of the public service to private parties or corporations, on a basis of exploitation for profits and without interference of parliament? Not one of these services—not all of them together—can be manipulated with such ruinous consequences to the public as the control of the currency.

If it is possible, how can they be trusted in these other matters? If parliament is so utterly bereft of responsibility that it would waste both the Central Bank and the country, what justification have these savages of the public to offer for not demanding that parliament be prevented administering the other branches of public service and the other assets of the nation?

"Turn by distrust, unrest, suspicion and doubt" was the way Mr. Bennett described the present position of "the Canadian people" after five years of "his" "sound" money, trade-stagnation, high unemployment, 300,000 men on the streets, Kansas City; Star Building, Saint Louis; Walton Building, Atlantic; Lewis Tower Building, Philadelphia; St. Helen's Avenue, Tacoma, Washington.

It is easier to start a political "wildfire" than to put it out. "Progress" candidates are appearing in some federal constituencies in opposition to the candidates chosen at conventions of Mr. Aberhart's followers. And why not? This is the only reason why representatives of the "left wing" would be sent to Ottawa. If one man may try to turn the provincial victory to his own account, why not another?

Premier Aberhart says the situation will be cleared in respect to resuming payments of provincial savings certificates when the then-issued issue of "baby" bonds is started. Which appears to mean that the bonds will remain the certificates will be cashed, otherwise they may not be redeemable for an indefinite time. It is probably also true that if the bonds sell well people will not be so anxious to cash their certificates.

In CBC Circles there is talk of drastic changes in programs to originate after the elections. The intention is that the radio stage is to be bailed down to the music and drama program. The new program will be heard from Toronto with the small shows being built up in the Prairie and Pacific coast stations. The intention is that music and which will be given to the presentation of some dramatic and orchestral groups. Meanwhile politics will occupy the kilocycles of the radio stations from 8:00 to 10:30 p.m. on some nights will be crammed with campaign oratory.

Back to the NBC-WJZ net Sunday at 9:30 p.m. comes a favorite program of last season. Ozzie Nelson and his family, with Artie, Artie, and Bob Ripley taking the spot held down last year by Joe and Fred. The initial program includes "Swamp Fire" and "The Gentleman Contractor." The NBC program is for blues "singing" Harriet, and "Lulu's Back in Town." "I'll Never Say Goodbye" and "I'm a Little Teapot" and "Footloose and Fancy Free" for the Nelsons' darlings.

CAMROSE BOYS ON FREIGHTER HITTING REEF

Francis Klenast and Olaf Rosland on Crew of Heigh Trader

CAMROSE, Oct. 5.—Two Camrose boys were aboard the freighter Heigh Trader when it struck a reef near the Fiji Islands on the night of July 28 last, but learned from the ship's master, Mr. F. J. Klenast of Camrose, parents of one of the boys, Francis Klenast, 17, and Olaf Rosland, 16, seaman, Olaf Rosland, was at the wheel at the time the 10,000-ton freighter struck the reefs in the dark.

The two lads signed on in Vancouver, B.C., on the Heigh Trader which first sailed for the port of San Pedro, near Los Angeles, Cal., with a cargo of lumber.

DUMPED CARGO

From there the ship set its course for Australia, but ran into a storm in the South Sea Islands and had to dump some of the cargo into the sea, but the freighter was not adrift and was able to proceed to Suva for repairs, after being towed off the reef by an assisting British naval boat.

A difficult "short out" through the reef was being steered at the time and no blame was attached to Olaf Rosland, who was at the wheel when the ship struck the reef in the night, nor was any responsibility placed against him. Both boys were on the lookout at the time.

SHOOT GOT BOY

The Camrose boys wrote enthusiastically of trading with the Fiji natives for fruit and watching the natives dive into the sea after collecting shells. They also saw shark-infested. They mentioned that a native had lost both his arms when a shark had bitten him before their arrival.

On arrival in Sydney they found it was springtime in Australia, and that the southern temperate zone was rapidly warming up, with temperatures rising high seas, with water temperatures the hundred foot mark in height. The Camrose boys planned to return to Vancouver, via India, China and Japan, instead of sailing around the Cape of Good Hope, as their boat was expected to before having to dump its cargo.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR YOUNG FOLK

The McDonald Baptist, Young people celebrated their fifth birthday on Monday evening, the birthday party, which was also the evening of the season. The room was decked out with streamers and sprays of fall leaves and straw. The room was decorated, at which the retiring officers presided, was beautifully arranged with a three-tier cake in the center.

The chairman for the evening, Rev. H. C. Stubbards, presided, part of the evening over to the past president, Miss Bessie Yule, who was the happy mother of ten of tunes and new.

Following this an outline of the formation of the Young Folk's Committee, Scott Shade, director, Doug McIntyre favored the party with a solo.

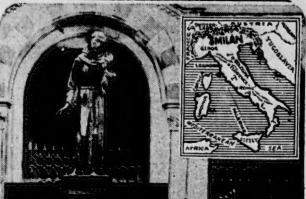

Rev. Stubbards then gave an impulsive talk, dealing with the club's aims and plans for the coming year.

The Young People celebrated their fifth birthday with best wishes from W. Thornton, president of the Interdenominational Y. Board, on behalf of the board.

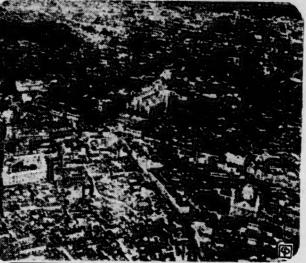

After this, an interesting and amusing review of the activities was presented by Miss Bessie Yule, who is the new Y. Board vice-chairwoman.

ETHNICAL—Gauls who came with the Alps are declared by Lazio to have founded the ancient city. The Celts, who were regarded as Celts, were captured by Milan. Frederick Barbarossa made Milan the capital of Italy, and thereafter it frequently was the capital of the Lombard state.

POINTS OF INTEREST—Milan is famous for splendid churches, finest of which is the world-renowned Gothic cathedral, with its 325-foot spire, and its fine marble. More than 4,000 statues and beautiful carvings. Within the cathedral is the tomb of King of Milan in 1803. In the church of St. Ambrose, German Emperor Frederick Barbarossa is buried. The most noteworthy of the many buildings is the Palazzo of Aragon, formerly the Jesuit college. The castle of Milan, the residence of the Sforza princes, Milan became a Spanish possession. Not until 1861 was it under Italian rule, throwing off the yoke of Austria.

Boy Scouts Will Be Traffic Officers In Public School Zones

Uniformed Boys Will Undertake Duties for Young City Children

Local Boy Scouts will commence their duties as special traffic officers in school zones within the very near future," states E. Clarke, district commissioner of Scouts for Edmonton.

Following the success of the "Junior Livestock Clubs Hold Fairs" organized during the spring season, the Past district will recruit the F. Fontaine district agricultural students to help with the "Back to Ogden's" day," according to district commissioner E. Clarke, who is looking forward to the extension of Scouting in the Edmonton district during the coming year.

Clarke, who is looking forward to the extension of Scouting in the Edmonton district during the coming year.

Training for the purpose is now in progress, and there is every reason to believe Edmonton will put a large part in building up the 10,000 objective.

The police are most anxious that the boys will be fully prepared to take on their duties, as they are of the opinion that the junior officers will be of great assistance to the traffic department.

TRAINED TO PURPOSE

The Scouts will demand the responsibility to be given to carry out their duties, having been trained for the purpose, and they will take charge of traffic control in the school children at busy intersections.

GIROUX CLAIMS TORIES NOT TO KEEP PROMISES

Conservative Policies Had Strangled Business M.L.A. Says

Charging that the Bennett administration, if return to power on Oct. 14 had no intention of implementing its promises, as it had been proved to the public in the 1930 election, L. A. Giroux, M.L.A. for Grounds spoke at St. Albert on Friday night in support of the candidates of the Edmonton Liberal nomination in West Edmonton. NO DUTY UPON IMPLEMENT IS WELFARE NEED

J. A. MacKinnon Urges Lowering Of Tariffs

Pointing out that all implements of primary production must be absolutely duty free as being essential to the economic welfare of the nation, J. A. MacKinnon, Liberal candidate for the West Edmonton constituency in the Dominion general election, said yesterday Friday declared that the only way to bring this condition about was to reduce the tariff on implements. "The Liberal plan is to lower tariffs to stimulate trade for greater trade both ways, more imports, simpler, lower duties and more revenue."

Mr. MacKinnon, in urging lower tariffs said that:

"The farmers of this country have had a hard time in the last few years, and their lots have been made harder by the tariff increases imposed by the government. For example in 1934 the farmers paid $50,000 extra on dairy separators which were imported. In 1930, in 1930-31 and 1934-35 ploughs and plowshares were imported, of which $100,000 extra was paid. Farmers and the families had to pay 25 per cent extra on 10 per cent as they were protected by Liberal tariff."

BINDERS AND COMBINES

In 1934, binders and combines imported from the States was 25 per cent instead of the 10 per cent that it was. This is an additional imposition which the farmers and other primary producers of the country must bear. As I have tried to show you the higher imports as compared with the lower imports imposed because of falling revenue from duties and then on what they have to pay."

"Remember the Liberal plan is to have lower tariffs. Lower tariffs mean greater trade both ways mean imports—more imports even at lower duties. Lower tariffs mean greater revenues from this source means less revenue required from the tariff. The only way of taxation of this sort will mean stimulation of business—that will result in more imports."

When a man's trade is dependent on the volume of business the line of home manufacturing—business generally. It sounds as though there is no future. Unstable, but remember 1921 to 1929. That is the kind of event that will be again."

DEFINITE RELATION

"Because of the definite relation of trade to general business conditions I was at the festival last night at my disposal to touch on the subject of tariffs. I am not going into past history. We have our own Canadian National Railways. The Conservative party is pledged to maintain that system as a separate publicly owned corporation. The Canadian National is by nature a large export country and therefore a large import country. The internal trade of the Dominion of Canada is the responsibility of the Canadian government. The railroads fall into this category. Since 1930 the Conservative party in the federal government has reduced the volume of business transacted by the people of Canada—consistently has decreased the actual volume of business handled by the railways."
